EASTERN TURF TALK.

Talk has already started regarding a bill to be introduced in the Pennsylvania Legislature legal-izing racing and private betting in that state. With the prosperity of racing in New York State in mind and not forgetting that the sport once thrived at the Suffolk Park, Point Breeze and Pittsburg tracks nearly twenty years ago, Pennsylvania turfmen have waxed enthusiastic and are confident that if they are permitted to open tracks just outside of Philadelphia and the Smoky City they will reap their reward in the shape of a boundless financial harvest. A year ago a bill drawn on the lines of the Percy-Gray law was introduced at Harrisburg, but it made no progress because it had no influential sponsors. But now turfmen in the Keystone State believe that there will be favorable action, especially if a Pennsyl vania Jockey Club is organized composed of such well-known racing enthusiasts as A. J. Cassatt. S.S. Brown, P. A. B. Widener, Joseph E. Widener, B. F. Clyde, E. T. Stotesbury and others. It was at the Centennial race meeting in 1876 at Point Breeze George Lorillard, Oden Bowie, E. J. Clabeugh, August Belmont, D. D. Withers, L. R. Jerome and others raced. The memories of these days of success have not entirely faded away and a revival of them appears to be in order. The bill to be placed before the Legislature at Harrisburg will be copied from the present law in this state. It will not legalize open gambling and pool selling, but will permit private betting between individuals with a chance for a bettor to recover losses in a suit at law. The success of racing here will be pointed to as a forcible argument why the sport should be allowed to come to life again in Pennsylvania under similar stringent conditions. It is said that capital is ready to build one of the largest and best appointed race tracks in America within a half hour's ride of the Quaker City as soon as the proosed bill becomes a law.

It was learned Saturday that the Metropolitan

Jockey Club, which controls the "Sullivan-McCar ren" track near Jamaica, has just made a forma application to the Jockey Club for spring and fall dates next year. The delay in asking for dates created some talk recently, the impression being prevalent that the new track had decided to lie dormant for another year. But with the applica-tion comes the problem for the Jockey Club to solve of allotting dates to all of the local racing associations without hurting anyone's feelings. Last year the Jockey Club made known the dates for the season just closed so unexpectedly that the Sullivan-McCarren combination did not have time to put in a request for an allotment, although it is doubtful if they could have gotten the new track ready in time to race either in the spring or in the fall. But the track is now practically completed and the owners of it say that under the law they expect to receive a license from the State Racing Commission, prior to getting dates. It has been said that the failure of the Metropolitan Jockey Club to arrange for a suitable list of stake events might work of its disadvantage in view of the position the Racing Commission and the Jockey Club have assumed in this matter. But the pro moters of the new track, in their application for dates, have declared their willingness to meet all of the requirements with liberality. In building the new track at Jamaica the promoters have already spent nearly $200,000, it is said, with a further out lay necessary before the gates can be opened to the public. In going ahead with the work, they have evidently believed that they will receive recognition from the racing authorities. Work on the track was begun before the law was amended giving to the Racing Commission the absolute power refuse or grant a license to race after a certain te. That is why there is a general belief that the track will be formally recognized in the allotment of dates, which is looked for now any day, Bennings race track will be ploughed up during the coming week. Many of the herses that were to winter there will be taken to Marlboro, Md., where it is said that the climate is particularly suitable for the care of thoroughbreds. W. P. Burch, who trains for F. R. Hitchcock. is the prime mover in taking horses to Marlboro, and as many as fifty will probably winter there. August Belmont has pur-chased fifty acres of land adjoining the Bennings track for $65,000 and a half mile track will be built upon it for the use of horses that remain at the Washington Jockey Club's course until the opening of the spring meeting.

A French sporting writer who has just arrived in town says that in his opinion the charges brought against jockeys Milton Henry and Johnny Reiff by the French turf authorities are without foundation. He says that the boys outclassed all other jockeys on the Franch tracks, and that their mounts were always backed in preference to th He is confident that both will be cleared in due time.

Senator J. S. O'Brien of Minnesota, whose horse raced in the east this year, will winter his entire stable at Gravesend. It was at Saratoga that the attention of the stewards was attracted to Senator O'Brien's colt Hans Wagner, which won at odds of 20 to 1, and was then suspected of having the "dope." It was afterward shown that the Senator was not cognizant of the horse's condition.—New York Sun.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Jockey C. Vandusen, who has been riding in Austria during the past season has arrived at New Orleans He brings back glowing reports of racing in Austria and says he has had a very successful season despite the fact that he was on the ground for three months for rough riding. Vandusen rode for a syndicate of turfman headed by Baron Ernest Von Blaskovitz. James Dyer, who handled Elkwood the year he won the Suburban for Walter Gratz, trained the stable which Vandusen rode for. Vandusen will return to Austria next February. He said: "The people that I ride for have one of the finest breeding establishments in the world. They sell a great many of their horses, and also have more than enough to race. Our stable had thirty-nine horses last spring. Before the season ended we lost four through sick-ness and accidents. We won every principal stake in Austria and Hungary, with the exception of the Austrian Derby. I finished third in the Derby with Hazafi, but was disqualified. I rode Berevolgy in the Austrian Prize, Viglany in the King's Prize, two of the richest stakes in the country. I also rode and won any number of other stakes. The Grand Filly Trial and numerous other stakes.

"We will have one of the largest stables in the world next year. I think we will have greater success next season than this. We won $99,000 in purses alone, which was more than any other stable in that country has ever won. The horses that will start in all of the principal stakes next year have already been picked out. They will be prepared for one race only. After they win they will be re-tired for the season."

Dyer sent a young Austrian lad named Liner over with Vandusen, with the idea of placing him with a stable in this country. Dyer wants Liner to ride here for a year or so to learn the American style. Liner is a bright-looking chap, and can do as light as eighty-five pounds. He rode two winners on the other side, and Vandusen pronounces him a canable lad him a capable lad.

Jack Keene, the Kentucky trainer, who has not met with good fortune in Russia and is home for the winter, has bought of W. M. Jackson, of this city, the good race mare Miss Conrad, five years old, by Conrad-Miss Caveland, by Finis. He has also bought of R. G. Bolich the six-year-old mare Rival Dare, by Only Dare-Mollie Jones, by Revenge. Both are well known race mares and they will be bred to Braw Lad this spring.

Winner—B. g, by Deceiver—Nantucket, by Onondaga (trained by G. Miller).

Went to post at 2:58. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Decoy beat the gate and stole a winning lead on the first turn and in a fierce drive just lasted to beat Digby Bell. The latter broke flatfooted and was pinned in next to the rail on the first turn, but when clear closed up ten lengths on the winner and appeared like winning in the stretch, but tired. Alado was always prominent and ran an unexpectedly good race. Star Cotton retired after going a half. Lone Fisherman was in difficulties early and beaten after going three furlongs.

Winner—B. g, by Lord Clifden—Tenny B. (trained by H. E. Rowell).

Went to post at 3:25. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Pat Morrissey got away in his stride, forced the pace from the start and came away strongly in the last quarter. Sugden ran well, but swerved to the rail on the stretch turn and was tiring under his weight at the end. Nonie ran a good race, is steadily improving and finished strongly. Matt Hogan broke slowly, but moved up fast and appeared dangerous in the stretch, but quit badly at the end. Bedner and Rollick ran badly. The latter was evidently handicapped by the going.

Went to post at 1:59, At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Moranda showed the most speed throughout and Rice kept her on the extreme outside all the way. She was tiring at the end and was under a hard drive all of the last furlong to stall off Smile. Landry took matters too easy with Smile in the first half, but came very fast in the stretch run and would have won in another stride. Tillo outgamed Judge Magee when it came to a drive and beat him out for third money in the last stride. Scratched—86334 Glennellie, 105.

FIVE WINNERS OUT OF EIGHT TO DATE

Despite the uncertainties of the heavy track at New Orleans since the meeting opered have landed five winners out of eight for our subscribers so far. Now that the rainy season is over and the going again good we are confident we will land seven out of the next eight and at cecidedly better odde. Telegraph us your betting account if you wish to enjoy the good things this week.

Here is a complete record of every horse played to win by us for our one horse per day subscribers at New Orleans to date. This statement gives the name of every winner as well as of every loser. Leok it over.

Nev. 27. CAMBRIAN, 9 to 10, wen. Dec. 3. JACK BEMUND, withdrawn. Nov. 28. FEDERAL, I to I, second. Dec. 4. MOABINA, withdrawn. Nov. 29. THE LABY, I to I, wen. Dec. 5. JOHN PETERS, 4 to 5, wor. Dec. 1. IF YOU DARE, 7 to 10, won.
Dec. 2. BARRACK, 1 to 1, lest.
Dec. 8. W. J. DEBOE, 4 to 5, won.

Our facilities for covering the New Orleans meeting are on a scale heretofore unparalleled in racing annals. Three weeks ago four of our expert clockers were sent there, and since then they have been watching and timing horses in training there in their early morning trials. Last week the original set was re-enforced by an extra man sent from Bennings and another sent from Lakeside. To this force have been added two of our regular handicappers.

Our preparations in other channels are on a much more extensive scale than heretofore have been attempted, and the result must be an accuracy in forecasting the daily winners at the Crescent City Meeting that will trasseend even our brilliant record there last year.

WE GOT OUR TRAINING IN THE WEST.

As a further guarantee of success at New Orleans, we call your attention to the fact that the Maxim & Gay Company is essentially a Western organization, our track sharps, with one exception, having won their spurs in the West. Besides this, the steckholders of the Maxim & Gay Company enjoy the intimate friendship of seven out of ten of the owners and trainers racing in New Orleans, and the Company has access to information as to owners' and trainer's intentions there that it does not enjoy elsewhere to the same degree. Every body conversant with the history of the Maxim & Gay Company knows that at New Orleans two years ago it scored the sensational success which made its name a household word among racing people.

WE WILL HANDLE YOUR MONEY.

WE WILL HANDLE YOUR MONEY.

The arrangements which we have made for this Winter are perfect. For the past two years we have been handicapped at the track by the publicity which has been given our information by its early sale. This year we have arranged to provide against this. The name of the horse we select will not be communicated to anybody before the races. In order to enable clients to back our choices we have secured the services of Mr. Sol. Lichtenstein, a noted Eastern bookmaker and member of the Metropolitan Association, who places the money at the track.

Accounts will be accepted subject to conditions which are given below. As a pledge of good faith, the Maxim & Gay Company guarantees to place in the hands of the Editor of the New Orleans Item the selections the money will be played on, and also to mail the selections to out-of-town subscribers before noon each day of the races, such letter to bear postmark of not later than 1 P. M. of the day the races are to be run. It also undertakes to telegraph, on request, to any subscriber every evening the odds secured and the names of the horses played.

Conditions of subscriptiens to our service at New Orleans are as follows:

Fee for information, $10.00 weekly.

Charge for placing your money at the track is five per cent. of the net weekly winnings. Weekly remittances of profits. Accounts subject to withdrawal at a moment's notice. Official closing odds guaranteed. Remit direct to Maxim & Gay Co., 928 Canal Street, New Orleans.

The following are the minimum accounts that will be accepted:

For $10 daily play on each hore, $500.

Do not entrust money to the mails without registering. Bank Checks must be certified.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Henry McDaniel, the speedy two-year-old which finished third in the Inaugural and has since won two races, is beginning to attract attention. A young gentleman of wealth from the east now at New Orleans was greatly impressed by the way in which the son of Buck Massie took John Peters into camp several days ago. He so declared himself to starter Fitzgerald and deputized him te get owner Lansing to put a price on the celt. When told that Fitzgerald wanted him to name his figure for Henry McDaniel, Lansing said: "It would simply be a waste of words for me to set a price on the colt. I know that no one around here would begin to think of giving me my price. I would not take a dollar less than $20,000 for him. People might laugh at me for setting such a price, but I don't think there is a better two-year-old in the country than this fellow. I know what he is and what he can do. He has shown me three-eighths in 34 seconds with weight up and that's pretty good in any man's country."

The prospectus of the Kansas City Jockey Club and Fair Association, which is to build the new Southside racetrack, was issued last Thursday. The site for the track is announced for the first time. It comprises 1384 acres, lying five miles south of the center of the city. The association will be incorporated for $250,000 and will build a mile track, a commodious grandstand, a clubhouse, stables for 500 horses and such other buildings as may be necessary. The prospectus, which is signed by Ed Corrigan, the Chicago horseman, and six wealthy Kansas Cityans, four of them bankers and five of them millionaires, states that it is the desire of the incorporators that as many of the people of Kansas City as wish shall have an interest in the matter and for this purpose the stock is open for subscription at the leading banks.

"The company," says Mr. Corrigan and his asso-

"The company," says Mr. Corrigan and his associates, "will be incorporated at once, and there will also be organized a Fair Association, which will give a big fair in connection with the October festivities, and in which it is expected all the best merchants of the city will be interested. We expect this to be a paying investment, and it will certainly be operated in a manner which will warrant the fullest support of all the people of Kansas City. The company will be incorporated for $2.0,000, fully paid up capital and all subscriptions will be subject to payment in full upon delivery of the stock. There will be no commission and no promoters' stock voted to any one in the enterprise. Every stockholder will be on the ground floor."

Ed Corrigan has wired Secretary Clark of the Crescent City Joekey Club that he would ship twelve horses from the Churchill Downs track, Louisville, to New Orleans. Included in this lot will be Frank Rice, a two-year-old, which showed high-class form last spring. Corrigan purchased this youngster from his breeder, H. Scoggan, for a stiff figure, on the recommendation of Captain Rees. He was taken sick while en route from New Orleans to Louisville, and Cerrigan was never able to get him to the post in good form. He has rounded to again, and bids fair to make good the things expected of him.

William C. Whitney has won this year on the English turf only $27,830, as against nearly $100,000 the year before. Frank Gardner has won $20,765, nearly all with American bred horses. Richard Croker has won four races and $8,930, but one of those races, the Portland Plate, yielded large returns to the stable from the betting ring.

His majesty King Edward has won two races and

His majesty King Edward has won two races and $7,950. Mrs. Langtry, under the racing name of Mr. Jersey, won six races and $6,490. Mesars. James R. and Foxhall Keene won three races and $3,640. Eugene Leigh won one race and $500.

W. Lane is the English jockey who has ridden more mounts this season than has any other rider. He has taken part in $10 races, of which he has wen 170, been second 133 times, third 107 times and unplaced 400 times. His percentage of winning mounts was nearly 21, remarkably good considering the number of times he rode. Sir John Blundell Maple was his chief patron.

The report that jockey Buchanan was to leave New Orleans proves to be unfounded. When interviewed in regard to the matter recently Buchanan said: "I have no idea how the report got out. I came to New Orleans to ride all winter and will remain so long as my employers, Messrs. Durnell & Herz, continue to race their string. The fact that I have decided not to accept any outside mounts may have led some to believe that I was going away."

Battiste, the colored boy who rides for Arnold & Co., had a bad accident in the fifth race at Ingleside a few days ago. He was on Beana. The mare stumbled at the start, but seemed to pull herself together and move off with the others. Her legs became entangled again and she fell, throwing Battiste heavily. He was stunned, and it was feared that he had been killed outright. He recovered after being carried to the paddock, and it was found that a wrenched knee was the extent of his inturies.
